ABOUT THE ARTISANS

Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) is a relief, development and peace agency of the North American Mennonite and Brethren in Christ churches, with programs in more than 50 countries. MCC Egypt works with a number of Egyptian groups to export handicrafts for Ten Thousand Villages.

MCC Egypt assists with contacts and logistics with Egyptian producer groups. Ten Thousand Villages has purchased products with MCC Egypt assistance since 1993.

ABOUT YOUR HANDCRAFTED TREASURE

Nice Tie Tablet Sleeve

2501220

Your tablet is fit to be tied. Slip it into this sleeve handcrafted from recycled ties. Artisan group APE is located in Mokhattam, Cairo, traditional home for the city's informal garbage collection industry. APE builds on the collectors' technical expertise, while improving their professional and educational opportunities. The textile program provides income opportunities for women in this community.
