ABOUT THE ARTISANS

Sapia, formerly Piel Acida, was originally conceived in 1995 by Ana Piedrahita, an entrepreneur in Colombia's capital city of Bogotá.

Piedrahita had seen a box from Uruguay that was produced from dried orange peel, and recognized the potential for producing a wide array of unique and intriguing items from this material.

She decided to pursue a business specializing in the design and production of the products. The organization was formally registered in 2000.
